

Thunderbird Treatment Center

A state-of-the-art residential treatment and recovery facility offering culturally attuned services and programming to people seeking to heal from substance use disorder.

OPENING 2025

Visit thunderbird.center
to learn more

ABOUT THE FACILITY

Thunderbird features high-end amenities, including luxury rooms, a cultural healing space, an outdoor traditional garden, kitchen, and customized community and counseling spaces.

$36 million investment

40,347 square feet

92 rooms for residents

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Thunderbird will blend innovative therapies with personalized treatment plans, tailored to each individual's unique needs and goals.

Residents will have access to:

- Behavioral health professionals
- Individual and group counseling
- Traditional Indian Medicine professionals
- Outdoor activities
- Programming for pregnant or parenting adults
- Ancillary comprehensive services, including psychiatry, Medication-Assisted Treatment, dental, pharmacy, primary care, and an array of human services

45-day program

Intensive inpatient treatment model (ASAM 3.1 and 3.5)

15 beds

Number of beds dedicated to pregnant and parenting people

62% increase

Percentage increase of inpatient beds in King County, from 148 to 240

All people featured in photos are models and don't have any relationship to Thunderbird Treatment Center. Facility renderings created by BCRA.

For the Love of Native People

Thunderbird Treatment Center
OPENING 2025
Visit thunderbird.center
to learn more

Seattle Indian Health Board
611 12th Ave South
Seattle, WA 98144
sihb.org

